

DID HAPPY HOOLIGAN GET ANOTHER JOB? SURE HE DID.

THIS TIME HE IS HIRED AS A BILL POSTER.

ENERGETIC YOUTH.

First Young Man: "Hullo, Freddie. What! rolling your own cigarettes now?"
Second: "Yes. The doctor has ordered me to take more exercise."

Social or Human.

"Who is that man across the car there?"
"He's either a society man or a doctor. I can't determine which. He's used the word 'functions' ten times in as many minutes." — Minneapolis Times.

Deaf.
"Dad," said little Reginald, "what is a bucket shop?"
"A bucket shop," said the father, feelingly, "a bucket shop is a modern co-operation establishment to which a man takes a barrel and brings back the bung hole." — Town Topics.

She Was Particular.
"What sort of money will you have, Mrs. Munn?" said the cashier, when that lady presented a large check for payment.
"Sterilized," replied Mrs. Munn.—Life.

The Cause, Not the Effect.
Little Lucy Brown, while running in the yard one day, suddenly tripped and fell. Her mother, being attracted by the child's screams, rushed out, crying:
"Why, Lucy, what's the matter? Was it an accident?"
"No," replied Lucy, between her sobs, "it was a brick." — Little Chronicle.

GIRLS.

"Is Miss Passy still in the matrimonial market?"
"Yes; but she's on the remnant counter."

Members of the Cat Family.
A teacher asked her class to name five different members of the "cat" family. Nobody answered, till at last one little girl raised her hand.
"Well," said the teacher, encouragingly.
"Papa cat, mamma cat and three little kittens."

AT THE ZOO.

Dick: "Give the elephant a peanut."
Sue: "Can't spare one, but I'll let him chew my chewin' gum awhile."

Self-Approval.
"Have you ever done anything to win the gratitude of your fellow-countrymen?"
"Certainly," answered Senator Borghum.
"Nobody can ever say that I ever made a speech that it took over three minutes to read." — Washington Evening Star.

PREPARED.

Uncle Rastus: "Yo' want mah daughter's hand in marriage, does yo'? Is yo' able to provide for a wife?"
Apollo Jackson: "Yassir; I've already bought de washtubs an' clo'seline an' ringah an' props."

Proving It.
Briggs (emphatically): "I tell you that fellow Strawberry knows the value of a dollar."
Griggs: "You must have been trying to borrow some money from him."
Easy to Find Out.
"I often wonder just what she thinks of me," said the young married man.
"It is easy to find out," said the elderly married man. "Just sit down on her hat and she will tell you what she thinks of you in less than a minute." — Tit-Bits.
